

A Special Night Out at the Royal Welsh College of Music and Drama.

The Junior Warden Agnes Xavier-Phillips arranged this special night with the Principal of the RWCMD Helena Gaunt, who, in recognition of the support given over many years by the Company to the College, invited the Master, Wardens and Liverymen to attend the finals of the Sir Ian Stoutzker Instrumentalists Final on Friday 24 June 2022.

Sir Ian generously contributed towards the College's concert hall, the Dora Stoutzker Hall, and continues to support the College by way of an annual prize to the most outstanding student, which is awarded by competition.

This year four instrumentalists (pianist, flautist, cellist and saxophonist) competed for this prestigious prize, each performing a 30-minute programme.

The evening commenced at 6pm with Members of the Company seated in some of the best seats in the house, participating in interval drinks and joining the after event VIP canapes and wine reception.

The winner this year was the flautist Isabelle Harris from Pontypridd who is currently in her final year at the RWCMD. She will begin her postgraduate studies as an Orchestral Artistry student at the Guildhall School of Music and Drama.

It was indeed a special night out and a splendid event ! Many thanks to all at the RWCMD for making this happen.

Agnes Xavier-Phillips JP DL
Chair of PR Committee
24th June 2022