Issue No 34

Spring 2025

MASTER'S LETTER

Dear Liverymen

My heartfelt thanks to all who supported me at my Installation Banquet last April and have continued to support me during my term of office as Master. I was overwhelmed by Liverymen, friends and colleagues from my professional life and associations with various London Liveries who gathered at the Installation Banquet. Correspondence from among the 278 guests (168 were friends) continue to share with me how much they enjoyed the occasion which also subsidised subsequent Livery events in my year. One correspondent informed me how only the Worshipful Livery Company of Wales Royal Charter Dinner in 2014 exceeded 300 guests. The Master's Cruise was also a great first for Livery!

As Master I represented Livery on over fifty three official occasions. I am not able to write about each event attended but full reports of the events can be accessed on the Livery website and a photo gallery displaying all the events attended is attached further in this bulletin. London Liveries welcomed the participation of the Welsh Livery. One liveryman opined that he thought we were somehow connected with the 'marine mammal' and not the nation!

My year was all about inclusion. Not as some forensic marker but as a real time human story. Whether Welsh Wine tasting at The Glyndwr in Cowbridge, sipping whisky in Penderyn, a weekend in Llandudno or the delicious Malaysian luncheon in London; the superb tour of Parliament and Afternoon Tea with the Baroness Findlay of Llandaff (2013/14 Outstanding Achievement Winner) lasting friendships were made, the Livery strengthened.

My term of Office as Master focussed inclusion under the headings of "Legal" (HHJ Nicholas Cooke KC gave a fascinating lecture entitled "Does the Criminal Justice System Need a Thorough Check Up?") and "Raising Awareness" of our Company through collaborations - "Stronger Together" worked well with the Lord Mayor of the City of London Michael Mainelli's theme "Connect to Prosper". As part of the awareness initiative, I accepted invitations to be interviewed by the Wales Media, BBC Wales TV and BBC Radio in English (both available on the website). Dr. Claude Evans, Clerk Emeritus assisted by agreeing to be interviewed in Welsh by BBC Radio Wales - thereby helping to further raise the profile of the Company.

As part of my longstanding commitment to initiate a Legal Award through collaborations with law firms and legal departments in educational institutions, I engaged with them to explore social mobility and pro bono initiatives to demonstrate the breadth of the spectrum of the support offered by the Company through the Awards Programme.

As Master I identified awardees who understood the power of self-motivation in pursuing education and despite extremely challenging personal circumstances had all turned their lives around, wishing to pursue legal careers and ensuring their social mobility. My Master's Award, Legal Award and Achievement Award all affirm the breadth of vision of the Livery Company and the broad horizons it can span.

Our Livery Company is not best modelled as an inward looking exclusive club, but rather as a community of gifted and aspirational men and women wishing to play their part in the life of Wales as a nation. To ensure the sustainability of our Company going forward, I embarked on a recruitment campaign which has resulted in nineteen new Liverymen joining our Company who all hold our vision.

I was overwhelmed to receive the High Sheriff of South Glamorgan's Award and Shield at the Champagne Reception Court Dinner which followed my last Court Meeting as Master. The High Sheriff Janey Howell presented me with the Award in recognition of my valuable services to the community as Master of the Worshipful Livery Company of Wales. I am also delighted to share with you that I will be receiving a Lifetime Achievement Award 2025 at an Awards Ceremony on the 17th May 2025. I am honoured and humbled to receive these awards.

The year that now draws to a close has presented me with many challenges as retirements and replacements of officers seem to come like buses. I have successfully filled the vacancies, and the next Master will enjoy the stability and enthusiasm of a new Clerk, Treasurer, Chaplain and Beadle. I wish my successor and new officers a most wonderful year. The Worshipful Livery Company of Wales has a bright future: our demography is more balanced, our operating officers task driven, our committees target focussed. I thank you once again for your support and making my year a very successful one. I look forward to enjoying the coming year to witness the blossoming of what has been planted in my year as Master.

Coifon

The Master took the opportunity to review a remarkably successful year with a varied, enjoyable and well attended series of events. The Master has represented the Welsh Livery at many external events and raised our profile very successfully and continued with her campaign to recruit new members. This is particularly evident in that we have gained nineteen new members so far this year.

Three new Liverymen were elected at Court and subsequently clothed and admitted, Simon Care, Karl Gilmore and Richard Mustafa.

AWARDS CELEBRATION DINNER 2025

The Worshipful Livery Company of Wales

hosted its annual
Awards Celebration Dinner
at the

HILTON CARDIFF
ON
WEDNESDAY 12 FEBRUARY 2025

This esteemed event honours young Welsh talents across various fields, including education, arts, science, and technology.

The evening commenced with a warm welcome from the Master Agnes Xavier- Phillips JP DL who received Liverymen, guests and awardees as they arrived. The Clerk David Sneddon and Treasurer Colin Morris ensured a smooth ushering and introduction of the guests to the Master.

DRINKS RECEPTION

Approximately 140 , guests and awardees enjoyed the fizz reception whilst mingling and getting to know other guests. Awardees were chaperoned and introduced to Liverymen and guests by members of the Awards Committee and their Chair SW Henry Gilbert.

Dinner

Two trumpeters called the Liverymen, their guests and award winners into dinner. And true to tradition, the Master and the Company guests were clapped in.

Senior Court Assistant, Roger Harper, acted as MC, introducing the different parts of the evening and ensuring all flowed smoothly.

The three-course meal was served and enjoyed by everyone, with presentations and entertainment taking place between the courses.

We were richly entertained by “one of our very own award winner and sensational soprano Niamh Tagnell Toal” whose beautiful voice filled the room with a range of popular songs made famous by Edith Piaf and our own Welsh legend Dame Shirley Bassey! She was accompanied on the keyboard by Dora Keaton.

This was followed by the dualling trumpeters. Those who attended the Master's Installation last year would have heard three trumpeters dual at the Installation – clearly one had other duties!

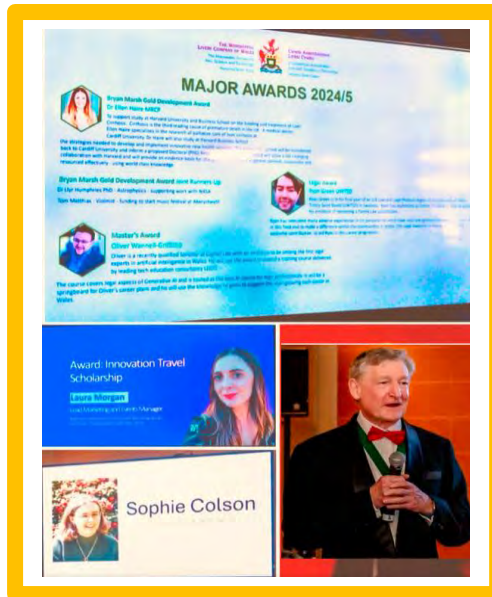

Award winners were seated at a number of different tables that were named after Welsh counties so they could meet and socialise with Liverymen from across the Company and be introduced to guests.

AWARDS

The range of activities the winners shared on how they were going to use their awards to further their careers ranged from supporting jewellery making, providing medical support in Australia and buying a new wheelchair for prospective paralympic sports activity. CA Simon Holt presented their stories in a short PowerPoint presentation.

The Award Winners hailed from very diverse backgrounds and were formally presented and photographed with the Master – including past winners.

In keeping with the Master's theme of Legal, Social Mobility and Inclusion, the Award recipients included a young newly qualified solicitor who received the Master's Award, a young law undergraduate the recipient of the Legal Award and finally an Employment Tribunal Judge who was the Achievement Award Winner.

The atmosphere was both celebratory and inspiring, reflecting the Company's ongoing mission to foster excellence among Wales's youth.

The evening ended with drinks in the bar before many left for home, with a few staying for the night in the hotel.

In conclusion, the Awards Celebration Dinner was a testament to the Worshipful Livery Company of Wales 'unwavering dedication to supporting and recognising emerging Welsh talent and showing how we achieve our Mission: Nurturing Welsh Talent.
