

WLCOW AWARD TO APRIL HUGHES

April Hughes received her award at Coleg y Cwmoedd on Tuesday, 9th September, presented by Liveryman Margaret Davies and Senior Warden Jane Croad.

April Hughes, a 2025 award winner from the Worshipful Livery Company of Wales, hails from Llantrisant, Wales. Having successfully completed her studies in A Levels at Coleg Y Cymoedd, she has achieved top grades, including A's in Mathematics and Further Mathematics, and a B in History and is set to read Politics, Philosophy, and Economics (PPE) at Oxford University. April's passion for multidisciplinary learning is evident in her commitment to understanding complex societal issues, which she has pursued through her education and a gap year volunteering with the British Red Cross.

Her ambition is to continue exploring humanitarian challenges through an academic lens, aiming to enrich her understanding of the world. This award will support her journey, covering essential university costs and facilitating her involvement in university life, including joining the philosophy society. April's dedication and aspirations reflect a promising future.

Jonathan Morgan Principal of Coleg Cwmoedd thanked the Worshipful Livery Company of Wales for their ongoing support to the College.
