

Caryn Cox has been appointed as the Chancellor for the Order of St John Priory for Wales.

As Chancellor, Caryn will work closely with the Prior to provide leadership to the charity and its Executive Board. She will be responsible for ensuring that St John Ambulance Cymru operates within its charitable objectives, with a clear strategy.

Originally from Malpas, Newport, Caryn has been a member of St John for over 43 years, having joined as a cadet in 1979. She joined the St John Board of Trustees in 2017 and serves on several of their committees.

Caryn has worked for over 35 years in the public sector and has worked internationally for the EU and the World Health Organisation. She is an NHS Consultant specialising in Health Protection, working for both Public Health Wales and the UK Health Security Agency. In 2022 she led the health protection and health security for the Commonwealth Games in Birmingham.
