

THE HIGH SHERIFF OF SOUTH GLAMORGAN'S HIGH AFTERNOON TEA THURSDAY 13TH OCTOBER 2022

The High Sheriff of S. Glamorgan, Rosaleen Moriarty- Simmons' High Afternoon Tea was held at Cornerstone, the beautiful Grade 11 listed building in Cardiff. This was a fund raising event to support the Charity NSPCC. It was very well supported and the main guests were the Lord Lieutenant of S. Glam Morfudd Meredith and Chancellor of Cardiff University Baroness Jenny Randerson.

The Junior Warden Agnes Xavier - Phillips JP DL took a table to support this worthy cause. Her main guests were the Vice Lord Lieutenant of Gwent , Dame Claire Clancy, Deputy Lord Lieutenant Jeff Edwards MBE, JP Moawia Bin- Sulfyan and other JPs from the Mid Wales Bench

The Master Stuart Castledine, the Lord Mayor and Lady Mayoress of Cardiff as well as former Higher Sheriffs and Lord Mayors of Cardiff including our own Liverymen Dianne Rees and John Charles Rees all attended to support this event.

It was a very enjoyable high afternoon tea with a selection of sandwiches, cakes, scones, pastries and petit fours. There was light musical entrainment in the background. Supporters donated very generous raffle prizes and a sum in excess of £3000 was raised to support the work of the NSPCC in Wales.
