

ART AUCTION – A HUGE SUCCESS

The Annual Art Charity Auction was held in the Sbectrwm Centre, Cardiff on the evening of Friday 23 Sept 2022 with over 120 items for sale at prices ranging from £1 to over £1000.

We were privileged to have Rosaleen Moriarty-Simmonds, High Sheriff of South Glamorgan, as our guest who kindly opened the proceedings.

The Auction was widely promoted through the website, social media and by word of mouth which brought in a good crowd with further bidders online watching the event being broadcast live over Zoom. A beautifully presented and very professional catalogue was available to those attending and could be viewed on the website in advance.

All the items were donated to the auction, many by the original artists. The profit from the funds raised will be divided between Disability Arts Cymru and the Worshipful Livery Company of Wales Charity.

Special thanks go to Jane Croad and her extended family who have been working tirelessly over the last few months arranging not only the collection of art, but the curating, venue preparation, food and drink and the display of the art on the day.

Many others contributed to the success including Simon Holt as Chairman of the Charity Committee and Auctioneer, Philip Kitchen and Claude Evans who managed the finances, Rowland Agidee who managed the broadcast, Keith Shankland as the Safety Officer and to Agnes Xavier-Phillips for her support in promoting the event. We are grateful to the very helpful staff of The Sbectrwm centre for facilitating the event.

THE TOTAL RAISED ON THE NIGHT WAS OVER £4,500.

A huge thank you to all the generous bidders!
